

ELECTION IN DOUBT.

AT LEAST, IT SEEMED TO BE SO FOR AWHILE.

STATEMENT FROM MR. BRYAN.

HE SAYS RESULT IS VERY CLOSE AND STILL UNCERTAIN.

CHAIRMAN JONES'S CLAIMS

THEY ARE UNYIELDING IN BEHALF OF THE DEMOCRACY.

LATEST RETURNS M'KINLEYITE.

They seem to place Republican success beyond question—Indiana conceded by the Democratic State Chairman—Bryan Parades.

NEW YORK, November 4.—Returns to date tonight by the United Associated Press reduce the doubtful States to California and North Dakota. Washington, Wyoming, Kansas, and Nebraska, of the States which were in doubt at night, are transferred to the Bryan column. The vote in California is close, but advice indicates that the State is Republican by a small margin. Delaware and Oregon are also in doubt, but are apparently carried by McKinley.

The latest news from California and North Dakota is that in the precincts so far counted, McKinley leads, but the margin is so small that both States must still be classed as doubtful. The latest returns indicate that the electoral vote of the States will be cast as follows:

State	McKinley	Bryan
Alabama	10	0
Arizona	0	0
Arkansas	10	0
California	10	0
Colorado	10	0
Connecticut	10	0
Delaware	10	0

McKinley's Plurality, 2,000. The outlook to-night is that the McKinley electors will have a plurality of over 2,000. Some rural returns are still missing, but the indications are that the Democrats will have a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, which is to elect a United States senator.

Tunnell (Democrat), for Governor, and Handy (Free-Silver Democrat), for Congress, are elected.

FLORIDA.

The State for Bryan by About 9,000—Congressional.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., November 4.—Practically complete returns from Florida show that the State has gone for Bryan by about 9,000.

In the First Congressional District S. M. Sparkman (Silver Democrat) is elected by a plurality of 1,000. In the Second District R. W. Davis (Silver Democrat) is elected by a plurality of about 1,000.

INDIANA.

Best Figures Obtainable Indicate Republican Success.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 4.—The best figures obtainable by counties, many of which are complete, show that the Republicans have carried the State by 18,000.

M'KINLEY INDICATION, 20,000.

CINCINNATI, O., November 4.—A Post special from Indianapolis at 9 o'clock says:

"Fifty counties in Indiana give McKinley 27,000 plurality. The State will give McKinley 30,000."

Uncertainty and Excitement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., November 4.—It has been a day of uncertainty and excitement in Indiana. There was in the late returns last night, and in those up to noon to-day, a steadily decline in the percentage of Republican gains and additional reports were reported that led the Democratic State Committee and the Democratic newspapers to claim the State. Chairman Jones then figured that Bryan could be saved with Indiana, and the anxiety on both sides was redoubled.

The bulletin boards were surrounded all day with vast crowds of people, making the streets impassable. They stood in the rain and cheered the slightest indication of anything favorable to their side of the situation in Indiana, but they had no patience for returns from other States, apparently being convinced that it all depended upon Indiana.

The returns to the Democratic State Committee are very meagre, but do not differ materially from the Republican returns from the same counties. There are ninety-two counties in the State. Complete returns from sixty-two of these, with the others, estimated from very nearly complete returns, give the State to McKinley by 21,000. The returns entire cannot change the figures more than a thousand at most.

The most part of the returns for the State are in the shape of pluralities by counties, and the vote cannot be given until the official count is made to-morrow.

The Republicans have carried both branches of the Legislature, and have a majority of 22 on the joint ballot, thus assuring the election of a Republican to succeed Senator Voorhees. They have elected nine congressmen, and the Fusionists have elected one Silver Republican and three Democrats. The following have been elected: Joseph R. Chandler (Silver Republican), Joseph R. Chandler (Silver Republican), E. D. Crumpacker (Republican), George W. Steele (Republican), W. F. Robinson (Democrat), W. A. Royne (Republican).

CONCEDED TO M'KINLEY.

At 10 o'clock to-night Chairman Martin, of the Democratic State Committee, conceded the State to McKinley by 21,000, while claiming the election of five congressmen—Miers, in the Second; Zenor, the Third; Holman, the Fourth; Cheadle, the Ninth; and Robinson, the Twelfth. The Republicans conceded all these but Cheadle, claiming the election of Landis by 20.

ILLINOIS.

Returns Bear Out Early Estimates of Republican Majority.

CHICAGO, November 4.—Returns from the State are coming in very slowly, but bear out the early estimates of a majority exceeding 100,000 for McKinley, with Bryan carrying Kentucky, Indiana, and Michigan.

Mr. Jones, chairman of the committee in Indiana, wired me at 2 o'clock this morning that we have Indiana. All reports from Michigan show immense gains, and those of Minnesota, says he has carried his district, although the Republicans claim it.

Reports from our friends everywhere show the press reports to be partisan and entirely untrue to us. Press bulletins particularly give Kentucky to McKinley, Ohio to Bryan, and Indiana to McKinley, but we are assured of all the South, except Maryland, and that we have not heard from the West, so far as we have heard from it, California, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming, and Montana are reported by our friends to be all right. If we carry all of the three States of Minnesota, Michigan, and Indiana, we certainly win all our reports are favorable from them all.

"NO 187 THIS TIME."

CHICAGO, November 4.—Chairman Jones, of the Democratic National Committee, says he has advice up to 7 o'clock to-night which indicates that Bryan has carried Kentucky, Indiana, and Michigan. He says a parade is already forming in Cincinnati, which will have for its standard the words, "None of us this time."

THE REPUBLICAN CLAIM.

CHICAGO, November 4.—Committee Chairman H. C. Payne has just issued a statement in which he claims twenty-three States, with 261 electoral votes, absolutely sure for McKinley.

ARKANSAS.

Bryan's Majority Will Not Exceed 35,000—Congressional.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., November 4.—Returns from yesterday's elections indicate that Bryan's majority in the State will not exceed 35,000. Congressman W. L. Terry ran 300 ahead of Bryan in this city. All the Democratic candidates for Congress are elected by increased majorities. They are as follows:

First District—T. M. McCullough. Second—John S. Little. Third—T. C. McLean. Fourth—W. L. Terry. Fifth—H. A. Dinsmore. Sixth—S. Brundage, Jr.

CALIFORNIA.

Returns So Far in Favor of McKinley.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 4.—Complete returns from 1,708 out of 2,077 precincts give McKinley 120,025; Bryan, 112,300.

SAFE FOR M'KINLEY.

California is safe for McKinley. Chairman McLaughlin, of the State Committee, yesterday stated that the McKinley campaign for the Republican candidate is from 5,000 to 6,000. The Republican papers in this city give the majority as ranging from 5,000 to 10,000. The San Francisco Examiner (Democrat) concedes the State to McKinley by 2,000.

DELAWARE.

The Electoral Vote for McKinley by 1,500 to 1,800.

WILMINGTON, Del., November 4.—Delaware's electoral vote is for McKinley by 1,500 to 1,800 plurality. The Democrats elect Tunnell, Governor, and Handy, to Congress by 4,000 plurality. The Democrats also control the Legislature on joint ballot.

A POSSIBLE VOTE FOR BRYAN.

WILMINGTON, Del., November 4.—James H. Shaw, one of the McKinley candidates for elector, was on both the Republican and Union Republican tickets. On the Union Republican ticket in Newcastle county "Sh" was added to his name. Many of the election officers gave James Shaw the 1,000 vote, leaving tally only on the head of the Republican tickets. Others kept the tally for both names and so made returns. To what extent this has been done cannot develop until the official count on Thursday. Shaw will depend on the action of the Board of Canvassers. If the intent of the voters is to be taken, Shaw will be given the entire vote, but if an attempt is made to show that two men were really voted for, it may result in losing one vote for McKinley.
